

Accession #3378

Canadian National Railways photograph collection

ITEM LISTING

NOTE: PARO cannot copy these images. The images can be viewed online through the Canada Science and Technology Museum CN Images of Canada Gallery (<http://imagescn.techno-science.ca/> ; accessed October 2021). Original images from the CN Photographic Library have been transferred to Library and Archives Canada. This list includes CN Images of Canada Gallery references as well as the original CN Library numbers.

- 1 View of morning train travelling through countryside from Charlottetown to Port Borden, [ca. 1940s]
Original CN Photographic Library number: X 12729; CN Images of Canada Gallery number: CN003329
- 2 View of narrow-gauge passenger train and engine #29 pulling into station, three unidentified railway employees visible on left side of image, [ca. 1910]
Original CN Photographic Library number: 21395; CN Images of Canada Gallery number: CN005542
- 3 View of Canadian National Railways diesel train and engine #7751 passing through countryside with bales of hay in foreground, [ca. 1950s]
Original CN Photographic Library number: X 26504; CN Images of Canada Gallery number: CN002589
- 4 First locomotive on the Prince Edward Island Railway built by Hunslet Engine Company of Leeds, England in 1872, gauge 3 feet, 6 inches, [ca. 1880]
Original CN Photographic Library number: X 39252; CN Images of Canada Gallery number: CN004555
- 5 "Multiple switch at Colville, P.E.I.," multiple switch for narrow and standard gauge track, [ca. 1920s]
Original CN Photographic Library number: 48375-1; CN Images of Canada Gallery number: CN002708
- 6 "No. 7 Emerald Junction. Special switch for Y to change third rail from left hand to right. Points set for standard gauge," [ca. 1920s]
Original CN Photographic Library number: 48375-2; CN Images of Canada Gallery number: CN004557
- 7 "No. 3 Multiple Switches and Tracks in Summerside Yard," [ca. 1920s]
Original CN Photographic Library number: 54067-1; CN Images of Canada Gallery number: CN004553
- 8 "No. 11 Ladder Track at Borden, P.E.I.," [ca. 1920s]. Crandall, photographer
Original CN Photographic Library number: 54067-2; CN Images of Canada Gallery number: CN004558
- 9 "No. 8 Multiple Switches in Charlottetown Yard Showing Multiple Narrow & Standard gauges. P.E.I.," [ca. 1920s]
Original CN Photographic Library number: 54067-3; CN Images of Canada Gallery number: CN002711
- 10 "No. 5 Emerald Junction. To Borden on the left. To Summerside on the right. P.E.I.," [ca. 1920s]
Original CN Photographic Library number: 54067-4; CN Images of Canada Gallery number: CN004559
- 11 "No. 9 multiple switches in Charlottetown yard, showing multiple narrow & standard gauge tracks, P.E.I.," [ca. 1930s]
Original CN Photographic Library number: 54067-5; CN Images of Canada Gallery number: CN004554
- 12 "No. 6 Emerald Junt. Special switch for Y to change third rail form left hand to right. (Points set for narrow gauge), P.E.I.," [n.d.]
Original CN Photographic Library number: 54067-6; CN Images of Canada Gallery number: CN004557