Clow family photograph collection

ITEM LISTING

1. Charles Graham and Joe MacLean outside Benjamin Clow's old carpenter shop. Building at right of photograph was the original Clow dwelling built by Benjamin Clow.
2. Joe MacLean and Charles Graham in front of original Clow house. Middle building was a canning shop used for canning beef and mutton. The large building to the right was most likely a warehouse for furniture, etc. In 1904 it was moved across the road and renovated to become the "big shop".
3. Store originally owned by Big Archie Johnston located diagonally across from the Peter's Road Presbyterian Church. Purchased circa 1900 by J.L. MacKinnon. Persons in doorway unidentified. Archibald Johnston's house in background.
4. Three unidentified men in entrance of Clow's store, i.e. the "big shop", in Murray Harbour North.
5. Clow's warehouse and horseshed, looking up the road to Cambridge. Two unidentified women in foreground. John T. White house in background.
6. Katherine Clow [?], wife of Benjamin, at side door of Clow house.
7. Unidentified woman on veranda at west end of Clow house.
8. Two unidentified ladies, possibly a cousin with bicycle and Kate Clow, at fence around portion of the Clow yard.
9. Unidentified woman and child in street in front of Clow house. In the background, renovations being made to the shop after it was moved across the road, ca. 1904.
10. House, barn and property of Samuel Johnston on St. Peter's Road.
11. Group of ladies on unidentified train platform (?)
12. Unidentified family group.
13. Unidentified girl sitting on fence, possibly Boston.
14. Unidentified woman on bench outside dwelling house.
15. Unidentified woman in doorway to building opening on farmyard.
