3. Digital copy of an image of Ralph Murray's great grandfather Alexander (Sandy) Muttart, ca. 1920, sitting on a verandah. Scanned as 060.002
4. Videocassette labeled "April 1997 – Final trip aboard the Gray, Interview with Capt. Murray, Community Showcase" lasting 1 hour, 21 minutes. The tape starts out with scenes on board the ferry "John Hamilton Gray". From 39:00 to 42:20 it moves on to a CBC news item about the ship's final voyage. Another segment, 43:56 to 44:34, is a CBC item regarding the photographs taken of all four ferries next to the Confederation Bridge. The tape continues with a still photo of the "Gray" in winter accompanied by a tribute song. An interview with Capt. Murray appears from 48:30 to 51:05. A Community Showcase Cable 10 program about Borden-Carleton produced by Island Cable Vision features an interview with Ralph Murray aboard the ferry "Abegweit". This appears from 55:33 to 102:05, with the rest of the Showcase program consisting of songs and information.
5. Videocassette labeled "The Last Shift Aboard the Gray, by Robbie Strait" lasting 2 hours. The video begins with Mr. Strait talking to Capt. Murray and other Maritime Atlantic employees aboard the "John Hamilton Gray". At 39:26 the tape shows the "Gray" leaving PEI for North Sydney, Cape Breton. From 40:30 to 46:00 there is a CBC news item about the end of the ferry service, featuring interviews with Maritime Atlantic employees. Another CBC broadcast from 47:10 to 50:10 is a live recording of the official opening of the Confederation Bridge. The tape continues with an unrelated ASN news program.
