

File listing:

1. "The life and times of James Gillis" by unknown author – 11 typewritten pages. James "Stork" Gillis was a colorful character who roamed the rural countryside of Prince County in the early 1900s. He died in December 1944.
2. List of Summerside policemen from 1876 to 1969 as compiled by Peter R. White – 4 typewritten pages
3. "Old Ern War Service" – 3 handwritten pages. Brief account of Mr. Steele's war service overseas from 1940 to 1945.
4. "CNR Ferry, Borden, PEI" – handwritten sheet of 22 captains
5. "History of Summerside in 1900 – old time days" – 5 handwritten pages of notes regarding such things as blacksmith shops, meat markets, hotels, doctors, dentists, barbershops, Salvation Army, Crystal Sisters, and Joe Read's Coal Co.
6. "Gun at Memorial Park" – handwritten page dated Oct. 26, 2001
7. "Notes taken by Fred Horne during interview of E. J. Steele Dec. 6, 2001" – 3 handwritten pages